Is It Alive? Data Sheet

List all the components that compose the TerrAqua Column, including the materials used to build it. Classify each object as living, dead, or nonliving, and cite evidence for your classification. Try to connect this evidence to the five characteristics used to define life in the video. Use as many data sheets as you need.

Component	Classification	Evidence for classification