

Rubrics for Scenario Sequenced Writing Assignments

Use these as a basis for writing your own rubrics for assessing the writings of your group members.

	4	3	2	1
Learning Theory Key Ideas	Comprehensive listing of 5 different ideas from each of the four learning theories presented.	Listing of 4 different ideas from each of the four learning theories presented.	Listing of 2-3 key ideas from only three out of four learning theories presented.	Very few key ideas from only 1 or 2 of four learning theories presented.
Teacher’s Application of Key Ideas	Comprehensive listing of 5 teacher applications of key ideas from each of the four learning theories presented.	Listing of 4 teacher applications of key ideas from each of the four learning theories presented.	Listing of 2-3 teacher application of key ideas from only three out of four learning theories presented.	Very few key ideas from only 1 or 2 of four learning theories presented.
Discussion of Learning Perspectives	Well-integrated discussion of examples given for all four learning theories. Perspective from which theories evaluated clearly stated.	Good discussion of examples given for all four learning theories. Perspective from which theories evaluated clearly stated.	Moderate discussion of examples given for all four learning theories. Perspective from which theories evaluated clearly stated.	Weak discussion of examples given for all four learning theories. Perspective from which theories evaluated not clearly stated.
Grammar, Mechanics of Writing	Few, if any, noticed grammatical or mechanical errors	Errors do not interfere with reading	Errors interfere somewhat with reading	Errors interfere greatly with reading