

Sample Student Writing

Newspaper Article Excerpt From Multigenre Project on Queen Elizabeth II

London Times

Sept. 12, 1940

Buckingham Palace Bombed!

German bombs fall on Buckingham Palace

By Jake Pruneau

London – Yesterday, sept. 11, 1940 Buckingham Palace was bombed by German aircraft. The King And Queen were in the Palace at this terrifying moment. Elizabeth and her sister were not present at the Palace, as their father ordered them to leave before they attack.

Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret are safe At an undisclosed location. Big Ben and many innocent houses were destroyed by this horrible act. The King and Queen are busy comforting the people of England. At this time in history, a time when so many of their subjects live in fear.