

Essential Questions

- What is representation?
- How do stereotypes, specifically of Native Americans, African Americans, and Latinos, influence how these groups are represented? How do the media create and perpetuate these stereotypical images, and what can they do to reduce stereotyping?
- How have these groups resisted and fought back against misrepresentation?
- Who in our society has the power to represent? Who benefits from this arrangement? How does this affect public policy?
- Why is self-representation important? In what ways can groups represent themselves?