

After you read the articles, write answers to the following questions:

1. What is differentiated instruction?

2. What are some differences between traditional pedagogy and differentiated instruction?

3. What are the challenges and benefits of differentiated instruction?

4. List examples of the following resources and explain how each one can support differentiated instruction:

- Primary sources

- Secondary sources

- Online resources

5. What are the benefits and challenges of using technology-based resources in social studies?