

After you read the articles, write answers to the following questions:

1. What are the elements of authentic instruction? How does each element engage students and increase understanding?
2. What is cooperative learning, and how does it differ from other small-group work?
3. How do different kinds of questioning promote active learning?
4. How can active learning help teachers assess students' understanding?