

After you watch the final video segment, write a summary of what you've learned in this session. Be sure to include:

- what it means to be an effective citizen;
- elements of a democratic classroom;
- how democratic classrooms prepare students to become effective citizens; and
- strategies you plan to use to connect social studies instruction to life beyond the classroom.