

As you watch, look for examples of how Ms. Vaughn and Ms. Sinclair model democratic classrooms and prepare their students to become effective citizens. Take notes on classroom climate, resources, and the content and values being taught. Then compare your answers to those of the workshop participants.

Lesson	Democratic Classroom Examples
Cynthia Vaughn teaches a lesson on community, citizens, and leaders, using a fictional model town.
Libby Sinclair's class examines stereotypes in a lesson on the history of the Negro Leagues, then students write letters to publishers.
