

THINK ABOUT
STRATEGIES FOR LITERATURE
DISCUSSIONS

Summarize this book in two sentences.

What is this book mostly about?

What scene would be the most powerful to act out?

Does this book hold any messages or lessons for readers?

What does this book have in common with...

You?

Another book in the theme group?

What are the commonalities?

Characters?

Plot?

Obstacles?

Setting?

Themes?

THINK ABOUT
STRATEGIES FOR LITERATURE
DISCUSSIONS

Summarize this book in two sentences.

What is this book mostly about?

What scene would be the most powerful to act out?

Does this book hold any messages or lessons for readers?

What does this book have in common with...

You?

Another book in the theme group?

What are the commonalities?

Characters?

Plot?

Obstacles?

Setting?

Themes?