

Reflections: Persuasive Writing

Reflect on and write about who you are as a writer, specifically as it relates to persuasive writing.

Think about:

- What I do well. (Refer to your pieces.)
- What I need to work on. (Refer to your pieces.)
- What I have learned.

Remember:

- Focused Purpose
- Audience Awareness
- Defining the Writing Task
- Support
- Organization
- Class Brainstorming (Slicing the Pie)
- Models
- Webbing
- Ways to Organize a Problem/Solution Piece
- Introductions
- Conclusions
- Peer Conferencing
- Written Response Sheets (your own and your partner's)
- Editorial Scoring Guide
