

Puppetry Rubric

From the Study of Greek Mythology

Criteria and Score	5 Excellent	4 Good	3 Fair	2 Poor	1 No Credit
Timeliness  Score = ____	Puppet is submitted on time				Puppet is not submitted on time.
Mythology Theme  Score x 2 = ____	Puppet is directly tied to our study of mythology and character details are accurate.		Connection between puppet and our study of mythology is weak. Few characters details are present.		Puppet is not connected to the theme of mythology.
Creative and Original  Score x 5 = ____	Puppet is highly creative and uniquely uses a combination of materials.	Puppet is creative and original.	Puppet is somewhat creative and original.	Puppet lacks creativity and originality.	Ugh! Puppet does not exhibit creativity or originality.
Quality of Construction  Score x 5 = ____	Puppet is durable, hardy, and excellently constructed. Master craftsmanship.	Puppet has one flaw in construction.	Puppet has two flaws in construction.	Puppet has three flaws in construction.	Puppet is significantly flawed, cannot be used in our show, and must be rebuilt.
Visual Appeal  Score x 5 = ____	Puppet is very attractive, neat, and has a strong visual appeal.	Puppet is neat and attractive.	Puppet is lacking neatness and visual appeal.	Puppet is messy, but usable for our puppet show.	Puppet must be rebuilt.
Manipulation  Score x 2 = ____	Puppet's parts are easily manipulated.	Puppet's parts can be manipulated.	Puppet's manipulation is confusing or difficult.	Puppet has no parts.	Puppet cannot be manipulated.
Final Score  _____	I understand that if I fail to turn in this rubric with my project, my final score will be docked 10 points! (Hmmmmmm, I guess this means I will have to be very responsible.)				